

How Long Does Installation Take?

Last Updated Friday, 17 August 2007

Less time than you might think. We're known for the short time it takes to get the job done. Installation happens within 1-7 days, without disruption to your business. We handle everything, including, providing a temporary replacement refrigeration system to keep your merchandise at it's correct temperature.